

Grammar Study

The rules:

1. Work in groups of 3
2. The ONLY resources you can use:
 - a. This piece of paper
 - b. Pen/pencil
 - c. Your brains
3. Read the sentence aloud.
4. Reread the sentence aloud again, following the directions below.

Sentence ⇒⇒ I didn't say he stole the money.

1. Emphasize the 1st word in the sentence.
 - How does this emphasis change the meaning of the sentence? What does this emphasis imply?
 - What is the function of the emphasized word? (What does this word do in the sentence? How does this word behave?)
2. Emphasize the 2nd word in the sentence.
 - How does this emphasis change the meaning of the sentence? What does this emphasis imply?
 - What is the function of the emphasized word? (What does this word do in the sentence? How does this word behave?)
3. Emphasize the 3rd word in the sentence.
 - How does this emphasis change the meaning of the sentence? What does this emphasis imply?
 - What is the function of the emphasized word? (What does this word do in the sentence? How does this word behave?)

4. Emphasize the 4th word in the sentence.

- How does this emphasis change the meaning of the sentence? What does this emphasis imply?