

Reading Strategies

The following are traits of good reading. Many of these you probably do without even noticing it. These are especially helpful if you get stuck while reading, zone out, or don't understand what you're reading.

- Make a connection between the text and:
 - Your life.
 - Your knowledge of the world.
 - Another text.
- Make a prediction.
- Stop and think about what you have already read.
- Ask yourself a question and try to answer it.
- Reflect in writing on what you have read.
- Visualize what you're reading.
- Use print conventions to guide you.
- Retell what you've read.
- Reread.
- Notice patterns in text structure.
- Adjust your reading rate: Slow down or speed up as needed.

RCRC

Teaching Self Review

- Read: a section of text/notes
- Cover: close book/cover it up
- Recite/Write: retrieve key info (self talk or write it down)
- Re-Read to Check